Master's Table Quarterly Newsletter

Message from Jim: Q4 2019

Upcoming Dinners

Hi. Hope everyone is doing well. Fall is upon us with cooler days ahead. Here a few things since our last newsletter:

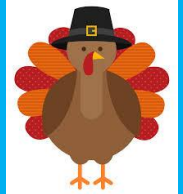

- We awarded our first Patrick McCabe Memorial Scholarship to Andrew Barna for $500 to help with the cost of books and supplies for college. Andrew is attending UCONN starting this fall. We wish him a lot of success in his future endeavors.*
- We also were able to donate a variety of clothing items to the Irving School Nurse's closet which provides clothing for students in need.*
- We recently held our 3rd Volunteer appreciation event at Massiminos in Ansonia. Dinner was enjoyed by all and there were also gift cards raffled off to 6 lucky winners.*
- Our 4th annual "At the Hop" was held on Saturday, Oct 5th and was very successful. Entertainment and basket raffles were the highlight of the evening.*

*God's Blessings,
-Jim*

Volunteer Spotlight

An Interview with...
Sandra Cordeiro

Q: How did you get involved with Master's Table?

A: Through Rayna Salemme asking her about volunteer opportunities. She put me in touch with Jim.

Q: How is it working on the give away table?

A: I love being part of something that gives back to the community. Seeing the smiles on their faces gives me much joy.

Q: Do our guests enjoy the give away table?

A: Yes, because every week they look forward to the unexpected treasures they may find. They also look forward to the bouquet of flowers at the end of the meal.

Q: Overall, What does Master's Table mean to you?

A: It is very rewarding to be part of something that gives back and brings the community together.
